We have for twelve months been prescribing ("Swif's Syphilite Specific") in the treatment of Syphilis and many other diseases for which it is recommended, and the results have been most entisfact ry, not having been disappointed in a single instance. We think, for all diseases it is recommended to cure it stands without a peer, and that all the medical profication will sooner or later, be forced to schnowledge it in the treatment of spyh lis as a sine qua non.

Advice to Correspondents. Never write with pen or ick. It is altogether too plain, and doesn't hold the mind of the editors and printers closely enough to their If you are compelled to use ink, never use that vulgerity known as the blotting pad. If you drop a blot of ink on the page, lick it off. The intelligent compositor loves nothing so dearly as to read through the smear this will make through twenty or thirty words. We nave seen him hang over such a piece of copy balf an hour, all the time swearing like a pirate, he felt so good. Don't punctuate. We prefer to punctuate all the manuscript sent to us. And don't use earlials. Then we can punctuate and capitaliza to suit ourse f, and your article, when you see it in print, will astonish, if it does not please Don't try to write too plainly. It is a sign of plebeian origin and pub'is school breeding. Poor writing is an indication of genius. Its about the only indication of genius that a great many men possess. Scrawl your arriole with your eyes shut and make every work as illegible as you one. We get the same price for it from the real possess. the rag men as though it were covered with espper plate sentences.

Avoid all painstaking with proper names.

We know the full same of every man, woman and child in the United States, and the merest hipt at the name is sufficient. For insance, if you write a character something like a drucken figure '8" and then draw a wavy line, and the letter M and another waving line, we will then know at once that you mean Samuel Morrison, even though you may think that mean Lemuel Messenger. It is a great mistake that proper names should be written properly. Always write on both sides of the paper, and when you have filled both sides of every page. rail a line up and down every margin, and by writing your name just above the date. And how we would like to get hold of the man who sends them just for ten minates, alone in the woods, with a cannon in our hip pocket, Revenge is sweet, yam, yam. L.y your paper on the ground when you write, the rougher the ground the better.

When your sticle is completed, crutch your paper in your pocket and carry it two or three days before sending it. This rabs off the superfluous pencil marks, and makes it lighter to It you can think of ir, lose one page out of the middle of the article. We can easily supply what is missing, and we leve to do it. We have nothing else to do. - Burlington Hawkeye. A JAPANESE HILL OF FARE.-In the last number of the Revue Brittannique is published an interesting account of a modern Japanese dinner party, from which the following extraordinary meau is taken, recommending it to the attention of those who may desire to introduce some startling novelties into the art of dining, as pract cad in Kngland: Boiled duces, chopped pigeoss, bird's nest soup, roast mutton and bamboo buds, mussels and crabs, tes and cakes, turtle scuo, minced dogs, braised rats, macaroni soup, black rats rosated, with sweet saces, salt fish, rosat pork with rice patties, preserved melonseeds, studied sea frogs, walcuts stewed with betel loaves, ices and fruits.

Various wines were served during this amising entertainment. The center of the table was occupied by a hugh covered bowl, containing good store of sea files, set swimming in Burgundy just before the guest sat down to dinner. By the time the meal was over these vivacious income and become an efficiently income and the contract of the cont sects had become sufficiently inebriated to exhibit an abnormal and eccentric activity, so that when the cover restraining their saltatory exercises was removed at dessert, they afforded excellent sport to the Japanese gentlemen present who displayed remarkable smartness in catching them with ivory crop sticks, and in subsequently eating them alive.

To British apprehension this may appear a somewhat revolting repast; but, remembering that many dishes which they and the Chinese erjoy have ugly names, that misrepresent their real character, we would suspend our judgement until we hear what the delicacies mentioned actually are. Burdle nest seen for instance in actually are. Bird's nest soap, for instance, is a very different thing from what people who have never been in Onina suppose it to be, and it is quite possible that even the black rat may be a species of ground game unknown in this country, but not the less edible for all that. We confiss, however, that the sea frogs and sea fi :as require a good deal of explanation. FOR THE MILLIONS -The handsomest line of Silk Handkeroniets. Gloves, Hose and Neckwear at ISAAC EICHBERG'S.
